Josiah jumped headfirst into playing music at 13 when his passion for singing prompted him to save up for his first guitar. The guitar was a vehicle to perform his favorite songs and compose originals. Josiah's earliest musical inspiration was Elton John. Elton's blend of Rock, Blues/Gospel & Pop is a major influence seen in Josiah's own compositions. Paul McCartney is another one of his musical heroes, both as a singer/songwriter and bass player. When listening to Josiah's music, you may notice other influences from Stevie Wonder, Jeff Lynne, and Tom Petty.
